SOUTHERN

DRUGMART

To the Ladies only.

NIPGEN & REAKIRT, WHOLDSALE DEEGGISTS, No. 318 Main Street, Memphis Tenn

Tms firm have just received, and are selling

Latin's Hendkorchist Estracta, Societa Hydrenga Pomadus Harr Oliv, Lubin's Pomadus and Florilla Sicrium's Ambresta Mrs. Allen's Zylakahanan, Eurak Harr Estatum Blarry a Thomberson, Lynn's Kathaire Ripgon & Ronkirt's Prepared Cold Pressed East GOOD FARE. MODERATE PRICES

ngra Caster Orlmost delightful and rainable dressing for the hair, and indispensable arrive for the Toles.

Johann Auton Parina Cologue, Burnest's Cologue, Bazia's

Bazin's Soaps,

SEADROOK'S CELEBRATED BALSAM OF TOLU, Our line of Parlamery, Scare, Tillet Articles and Faury Articles are account to mone out of New York City. We have purchased since the decline in Gold! yes not to be undersold by any house. RESEMBER THE PLACE, Wasson's old winnd, 318 Main Street,

MEMPHIS. NIPGEN & REAKIRT. C. F. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,

197 Main Street. BOOK BINDERS.

Blank Book Manufacturers,

AND WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN STAPLE AND FANCY

STATIONERY.

W. C. STRON, S. H. WOOD, J. H. HOWELL, late of Brownsville, P. READ, late of the Erm of Strates, McDavid & Co.

Southern Palace!

NIXON, WOOD & CO., Wholesale and Betall Donlers in FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS, BOOTS, SHOES,

ETC. ETC. 332 Main Street, Stand hemitly complet by Speed, Densite and Strange

BH237-300 THE OLDEST HATTER of MEMPHIS

NE. EE. NEEE, E. E. E. Internalisis City and Country friends that he is new at the

Memphis Hat Company,

Where he would be pleased to see them all.

Main Street, opposite Court Square,

MICHERIS, TENNESSEE. A splendld assertment of Baca on band-

Wm. JEHLE,

Winbrale Dealer in:

FRENCH, GERMAN AND AMERICAN

Fancy Goods,

NOTIONS, HOSIERY, BUTTONS, ETC.

2791-2 Main Street, Heresca Madion and Court streets, MEMPHIS, TENN.

Encourage Home Enterprise.

J. P. MURPHY & CO.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

Grocers & Commission MERCHANTS,

No. 189 Poplar Street, MEMPHIS, Opposite the Market House.

and COLESTIA. Parameter the Companies of the Companies of the Markovich Alarga and Sommer limit. Warmings of Goods on the printing.

ALSO, AGENTS FOR Memphis Chemical Mills,

Manufactore of INPADLIBLE BARING POWNER, BLACK AND BLUE WRITING INES, AND SPIULD AND SOLUBLE WASH-BLUE Saturatus and Sofa packed to 24 and 1 th papers.

A Liberal Discount to the Trade Orders Blind with dispatch: Aug 17-30 L.C. STATEDWICE P.M. PATTERSON

Having associated themselves together for the purpose of carrying on a general

Wagon Yard Business, Hays opened the beganyard.

On Washington Street, Between Third and Fearth Streets,

Where they dures to not their old restaurers, and so using now oner as closed to outer, Feed of all kinds for Stock for Sale, At lewest market print-

A Fine Fount of Water is in the Lot. There is also a good place for Waggeners to Sleep and Cook.

They are dis-Responsible for Anything Left in the Yard.

W. L. STEWART, R. D. L. STEWART, Late of Stewart & King. Late of Rainigh. W. L. STEWART & BRO.,

Cornon Pacrous, Commission & Grocery Merchants

No. 17 MADISON STREET, Have for mile, at Wholesale and Retail, BACON, HAMS, GROCERY STORES.

A WEEKLY NEWS AND LITERARY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THIS PROPLE.

Vol. I.

BOLIVAR, HARDEMAN COUNTY, TINN., SEPT. 26, 1865.

.Memphis Advertisements. G. D. JOHNSON,

HARDWICK HOUSE, Whiteship and Rend

Not. 61 and 65 ADAMS STREET, between 24 and 51. MEMPHIS, L. C. Hardwick and M. Nealis, Memphis Advertisements.

Propositions: Parties from the country will find the best of accommutations at this Hotel.

J. H. WAGGENER & CO., Merchant Tailors.

DEALERS IN READY MADE CLOTHING. Gents' Furnishing Goods, &c.,

Charles Martin Blocks 294 Main Street, MEMPHIS

BINGHAM & BRO.'S

PHOTOGRAPHIC

GALLERY is still carried on at the same old youd,

No. 218

COPIES MADE PROM PICTURES OF DECEASED PERSONS. And all Styles of

PICTURES Male known to the Art. BUNGHAM'A BROS.

> FRIEDMAN BROTHERS. 295

Main Street,

BOOTS AND SHOES

and Hats, Etc.,

WHOLESALE

EXCLUSIVELY.

A. H. BORCHERT,

Wholesale and Retail

Dealer in Boots, Shoes & Brogans Dry Goods Emporium No. 296 1-2 MAIN ST.,

Opposite Court Square,

MEMPHISTENNESSEE. country Treaters would do well to call.

GEO. MELLERSH

BROWN & JONES. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL PRAISES IN

PITTSBURG COAL

OFFICES: Cash advances made on Cotton for shipment, No. 40 Jufferson Street, between Main and 2d Mosiery, And at Yard, Foot of Poplar street, on Leves,

MEMPHIS, TENN. BLELOCK & CO.,

Booksellers, Stationers, AND

MUSIC DEALERS, HARDWICK, PATTERSON & CO., Str. Party Goods, Manual Lintronicus, Pieters Princes, do

Printers and Hookbinders. We have particular attention to our aim had relead Books, Stallehors and their Poor.

NO. 315 MAIN STREET, Service Directions Steamers,

MEMPHIS TENN

GEORGE ARNOLD & CO.,

Cotton Factors,

Commission Merchants,

AT THEIR OLD STAND

230 Front Street, Memphis, Tenn

WILLIAM LUNN. Gas Fitter,

No. 204 Main Street, . . Memphis, Tenn. Portracty and Patry Articles, But wern Adams and Washington Streets. Dealer in Iron and Lend Pipe, Sheet Lend, Nobel Brass, Copper and Life Parces for every purpose. Water Choose and Bath Table Book with Land, Smith Parces for every purpose. Water Choose and Bath Table Book with Land, Smith Parces of University of the Showers, ero. Marble Wash and Exampositing stands, Seem and Cheek Valvey Whistory, (Cheek Sangas and Shope Looks, Hung Copping and Base.)
Week of swary Assembly Seems Gauger 1996 by hydraulic parces of the Copping Sangas and Shope Looks, Hung Copping and Base. Schaubout Week prompily attracted to angle on a week our

DRUGGIST. 153 Main Street, - - - Memphis DEFALL ORDERS TEN Will more

Prompt Attention.

SUBMANY BROW, N=2 Full street, Robert 126 Fem Street, New York SUSMANN, MAYER & CO. Manufacturers, Importers and Whelmale Dealers in CIGARS AND TOBACCO.

MERRSCHAUM, Robber, Lave, China, Robe, and Briaz PIPES. No. 33 Jefferson street. Memphis.

Enclosively Whetenday R. G. CRAIG & CO.,

Whitesheard Realt

Main Street, - - - Jackson Block, MEMPHIS.

No. 379

A Splendid Stock on hand. J. ESS,

BOOT AND SHOE

MANUFACTURER: NO. 2275 SECOND STREET, EAST SIDE.

Memphis, Tenn.

A. CAMPBELL G.W. CHAMBERS CAMPBELL, CHAMBERS & CO., Whotesale and Merall Dealers in

FRENCH, Bots, Shoos, Hats, Caps, and a General Assertment of Men's

Woodruff Block, No. 172 Male Street, [Augl7-100]

CHEAP DRY GOODS.

SOUTHERN

MENKEN BROTHERS & CO., A. T. Welle, Old Stool, Corner of Court and Main streets, Memphis, Tenn.,

Ober, at Low Prices, Omaburys.

Calicoes, FLANNELS B.1. Satra, Loneya, Show and Bests, Lines Mens' Hats, Negro Blats.

And all kinds of Planters' Goods, Gloves,

THIMMINGS, ETC. Goods Sold Cheap. Everylesly invited to Lock at our Stanti.

aug 17-5m MENKEN BRUS & CO , 252 Main St.

D. L. HAWKINS, J.F.SCHIEVER D. L. HAWKINS & CO.,

Manufacturers and Wholeyda Dealers in Saddlery SADDLERY HARDWARE, Leather, Bridles, Harness, Collars

Ett., 1560., 39 Jefferson Street, Between Main and Second. Aug 17-200 MEMPHIS A PHILLIPS, Memories, S. ASSENHEIM, New York AS ENHEIM & PHIL IPS,

Men's and Boy's Clothing, HAIS, CAPS, ROOTS, SHOLS, CHUNKS, VALUES, GENTS PUR-No. 34 Jefferson Street, Lebuan : Old Stand, A. V. J. MEMPHIS, Tenn. Liberal Costs, Advances, made on

COTTON. And shipped to our own torons on New York, and prompte owns makes C V. S. MONN ES,

WHOLESALD AND BEFAIL DEALERS IN DRUGS,

MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, LIQUURS, Paints, Oils, Dyc Stuffs,

MEMPHER True.

THE BOLIVAR BULLETIN

By J. B. MILLER and M. R. PARRISH. [LATE JOHNSON & COODTEAR,] SUBSCRIPTION One Copy One Year Poor Deduce, inva-Brend, Fifty Conta-

mar Ratialmo, Marrisgs, Birth and Douth Kellers salisted, and will be britishly morred FIRE OF CHARGE Obst-turies will be competed for at advertising rates. Loave Me Alone. Lover no above with the thoughts of my correct, There's nothing that then came restore to me now The stability may grow me my spirit to-purrow, That falls from the scale of the scraph's brow.

Lines in alone is nor millight at weeping. I get not that their unall be inight, with mine; Awaken he beiling for me that a desping, he loops that my beaum, small here in analysis. Leave nine white, and so such furthe pleasure. That will not emplifier the for leave, control-but on, If this mine is the receiving measure. There comes that distillment that darken's the send,

Thus, thus, will remember of joy thou hast obsticted. In Sociaron, has meer again all return, Disc. wile weep in the champer where level their bars And sign for the screek of metallayse ura-Seed Store and Grain Warehouse, Stonewall Jackson's Death-How He

to Disputed Set at Lest.

Received His Wound-Points Hither-

single:without ke to reconneitre and ascertain, if possible, in spite of the darkness of the night, the position of the lederal lines. The moon from Chancellorelle, and had reached a point | an effort to move his fagers, as his ability | you wounded. The lines here are no much down at his hand during the attempt, but speedily gave it up, announcing that his arm of the eye, "You must hold your ground, motionless, listened intently for any indications of a movement in the Federal lines, They were scarcely two hundred yards in front of him, and seeing the danger to which he exposed himself one of his stall officers said, "General, dan't you think this is the wrong place for yar?" He replied quickly, and almost imposently, "The danger is all over! the enemy is routed! go back, and tell A. P. Hill topress right on!" The officer of obeyed, but had scarcely disappeared, and said during the attempt, but speedily gave it up, announcing that his arm was been defeat which his companion made to straighten it gave him great pain, and seeing the date of the eye, "You must hold your ground. General Peoder!" This was the last order Jackson ever gave upon the field. His strength was now completely exhausted by loss of blood that he was unable to take his feet out of the stirrups, and this would not consent. The bot fire of artillery which still continued, and the expected advance of the Federal infantry, made it accessing the eye, "You must hold your ground. General Peoder!" This was the last order Jackson ever gave upon the field. His strength was now completely exhausted by loss of blood that he was unable to take his feet out of the stirrups, and this would not consent. The bot fire of artillery which still continued, and the expected advance of the Federal infantry, made it needs to straighten it gave him great pain, and more appearance of the great pain, and more appearance of the eye, "You must hold your ground.

His strength was now completely. Chausted to be permitted to lie down upon the ground. His strength was now completely. This was the last order of the eye, "You must hold the the eye, "You must hold the eye, "You had he eye the eye of the eye, federate infantry in Jackson's rear, and on to the rear, receiving strict instructions, how- party continued to move through the tangles if this is an error, the troops fired delibed disrubber overall, dress coat and two shirts. have been extreme "For the first time, the singular jesture habitual to him at times of excitement, or to protect his face from the boughs of the trees. His left hand immediately dropped to his side, and his horse, no larger controlled by the rein, and frightened at the firing, wheeled suddenly and ran from the fire in the direction of the Federal lines. Jackson's helpless condition now exposed him to a distressing accident. His horse ran violently between two trees, from one of which a horizontal bough extended at about the hight of his head, to the other; and, as he passed between the trees, this self along toward the Confederate lines, the and, as he passed between the trees, this self along toward the Confederate lines, the people, classed as to the quality of the fixed hands struck him in the face, tore off his blood from his wounded arm flowing probroken and bleeding a gers of his right of his escort that he must be a superior offihand, and succeeded in turning his horse | cer. "Who is that-who have you there back into the turnpike. Here, Captain Wil- was called, to which the reply was, "Oh! its bourn, of his stall, succeeded in catching the only a friend of ours, who is wounded reins and checking the animal, who was al. These inquiries became, at last, so frequent most fruntic with terror, at the moment that Jackson said to his escort "When when, from loss of blood and exhaustion, asked, just say it was a Confederate officer.

wounded and dying men. Jackson's whole earty except Captain Wilbourn and a mem- two mon, the rost of the except walking by ber of the signal corps, had been killed, side it and leading the horses. They had wounded or dispersed. The man riding just behind Jackson had had his horse killed; a courier near was wounded, and his horse killed; a courier near was wounded, and his horse ran into the Federal lines, Lieutenant Morran lines and lines and lines and lines are the same lines and lines are the same lines and lines are the same lines and lines are the l of thicket un the left, he observed some one down by it to protect themselves, in sec authority of Jacksm's staff officers, and one ates. Captain Wilbourn directed him to ride the hurricane still sweeping over them; or two others who vitnessed all that occurred up there, and see what troops those were- far as I cauld see," wrote one of the officers In relation to the nost tragic portion of the the mon who had fired on Jackson-when the " men and horsus were struggling with a

when a sudden offey was fired by the Con- for a surgeon and ambalance to carry him bearers having been precured, the whole he right of the pad, evidently directed upon | ever, not to mention the occurrence to any | woods toward Maizi Chancellor's. So dense they see.

Whatever may have been the origin of the wounds to bleed afresh, but it was absolute the white poor wills, barne on the night air impossible to remove him without causing In this strange wilderness, the man of Port Whatever may have been the origin of his wounds to bleed afresh, but it was absolute and Manassas, who had led so many this volley, it came, and muny of the staff Intely necessary to do so, as the enemy were desperate charges seemed about to close his and escort were shot, and fell from their not more than one hundred and tilty yards eyes and die in the night. horses. Jackson wheeled to the left and distant, and might advance at any moment : But such was not to be the result then calloped into the woods to get out of range and all at once a proof was given of the dan. When tasked by one of the officers whether of the bullets; but he had not gone twenty gerous position which he occupied. Captain he was much hurt, he opened his over and steps beyond the edge of the turnpike, in the thicket, when one of his brigades, drawnup within thirty yards of him, fired a volley in their turn, kneeling on the right knee, as the flash of the guns showed, as though prepared to guard against eavalry. By this fire Jacks son was wounded in three places. He re-rendered with astonishment, declaring that eral in it. He was then borns to the field ceived one ball in the shoulder joint, shut-they were not aware that they were in the hospital at Wilderness Run live miles distant. tering the bone and severing the chief artery. Confederate lines. General Hill had drawn A second ball passed through the same arm his pixel and mounted hisborse, and he now Fishus Food.—There is much nourish between the olbow and wrist, making its returned to take command of his line and ment in 0sh, little less than batcher, s ment exit through the palm of the hand; and a divance, promising Jackson to keep his nocident from the hand; and a divance, promising Jackson to keep his nocident from the hand; and in effect it may be about the middle, and passing through, broke two of the bones. At the moment when he was struck, he was holding his rein in his toft hand, and the right was rised, either in the singular jesture habitual to him at times bundled yards from the same up and reported the Pederal line advance, promising Jackson to keep his nocident in lish, little less than intenderly stated weight for the form the form of the knowledge of the troops for the form of the form depressing. Horses, and with fright at the cluebors ting. Were seen running in every direction, some of them riderless, others defying control; and in the wood lay many. Jackson was about to fall from the saddle.

The scene at this time was gloomy and riosity of the troops was evaded. They last one of them caught a glimpse of a man who had lost his cap, as we have seen, in the woods, and was walking bareheaded in the moonlight, and suddenly the man exclamed in the most pitiful tone," mys an eye wit hear "Great God!" time is General Jackson! An evasive reply was made, implying that this was a mistake, and the man looked from the speaker to Jackson with a bewildered air, but passed on without further comment. All this occured before Jackson had been able to drag himself more than twenty steps but Captain Leigh had the litter at hand, and his strength being completely exhausted the General was placed upon it, and horne toward the rear.

The litter was carried by two officers and risson, aid-de-camp, threw himself from his and canister swept down the read. What saddle, and his horse fell dead a moment at the eye then saw a scene of disordered group. terward; Captain Howard was wanned and riderless horses, and after confusion. The earried by his horse into the Pederal camps; intended advance of the Confederates had Captain Leigh had his horse shot under doubtless been discovered, and this fire was dibim; Captain Forbes was killed; and Cap rected along the road over which they would 23 do 1 do 14,00 2 do 16,00 2 do 6,00 and Hall and Pontago and Hall and shot through the heart, and his dead body der, with several of their staff, were wounded earried by his frightened horse into the and one of the man carrying the litter was lines of the enomy, near at hand.

Such was the result of the causeless fire it had consed as suddenly us it had begun the dangerous locality, and but and the position in the read which Jackson for Captain Leigh, who caught the handle of now occupied was the same from which he the litter, it would have fallen to the ground had been driven. Captain Wilbourn, who. Lieutenant Smith had been leading his own with Mr. Wynn, of the signal corps, was all and the General's horse, but the animals now that was left of the party, notices a singular broke away in uncontrolable terror, and the circumstance which attracted his attention rest of the party scattered to find shelter, at this moment. The turnpike was utterly Under these circumstances the litter was deserted with the exception of himself, his lowered by Capton Leigh and Lieutemans mpanion, and Juckson; but in the skirting Smith Into the road, and those officers lay sitting on his horse, by the side of the wood, degree, from the heavy fire of artillory which and easily looking on, motionless and silent swept the turnpike and "struck millions of The unknown individual was clad in a dark sparks from the flinty stones of the road dress, which strongly resembled the Federal uniform; but it seemed impossible that he could have penetrated to that spot without being discovered, and what followed seemed being discovered, and what followed seemed compelled him to desit. They lay in this The details which follow are given on the to prove that he belonged to the Confeder- manner for same minutes without moving, cene, there remained, as will be seen, but a stranger slowly rode in the direction pointed most terrible death. The road was, otheringle witness.

Jackson had ridien forward on the turnWho this silent personage was is left in conwere the sole living occupants of the spot. The five of canistar soon relaxed, though

Captain Wilhourn, who was standing by thet of shot and shell continued, and Jackson Janbson, new said, "they certainly must be rose to his feet. I saming on the shoulders shone, but it was stuggling with a bank of our troops," to which the General assented of the party who had rejound him, he turned clouds, and afforded but a dim light. From with a nod of the head, but said nothing, aside from the road, which was again filling the gloomy thickets in each side of the turn- He was looking up the road toward his lines with infinitry, and struck into the woods, one pike, looking more veird and sombre in the with apparent astonishment, and continued of the officers following with the litter half-light, came the melancholy song of the for some time to look in that direction as if Here he moved with difficulty among the whippoorwill. "I think there must have enable to realize that he could have been troops, who were lying down in line of battle been ten thousand, said Gen Stewart, after fired upon and wounded by his own men, and the party encountered General Pender, ward. Such was the scene amid which the His wound was blee ling profusely, the blood who had just been slightly wounded. He vents now about to be narrated took place streaming down so as to fill his grantlets, tasked who it was that was wounded, and the ackson laid advanced with some members and it was necessary to secure assistance reply was, "a Confederate officer," Gen of his staff, consilerably beyond the building promptly. Captain Wilbourn asked him if Pender, however, recognized Jackson, and known as "Mein Chancellor's," about a mile | he was much injured, and urged him to make | exclaimed, "Ak! General, I am sorry to see India and Domestic Dry Goods

PLANTATION SUPPLIES.

The distribution of many still bessen, when he roined in his plantation supplies to the woods, near the road, whose shell torn the woods, near the road, whose shell torn to do this would prove that his arm was not broken. He endeavored to do so, looking the attempt, but the words seemed to affect Jackson strong down at his hand during the attempt, but the words seemed to affect Jackson strong to the words affect to the words seemed to affect Jackson strong to the words are the words affect to the words affect to the words are the words affect to the words are the words affect to the words affect to the words are the words affect to the words are the words are the words affect to the words are the word > him and his scatt. The origin of this lire one but Dr. McGnire, or other surgeon, was the undergrowth and the ground so dif-his never been discovered, and after Jack. Captain Wilhouru then made an examina-ficult, that their progress was very slow. An son's death there was little disposition to in vestigato as occurrence which occasioned his field glasses and haversack which contains the field glasses and haversack which contains the field glasses and the contains a coldent new occasioned this field glasses and two religious tracts, he put those on his own person that some movement of the federal skirmisters had provoked the fire. rately upon Jackson and his party, under the impression that they were a body of Federal While this duty was being performed, most piteously. He was quickly raised, eavely, reconnotering. It is said that the General Hill rode up with his staff, and dishowever, and a beam of moonlight passing men had orders to open upon any object in mounting beside the General, expressed his through the foliage revealed his pale face. front, "especially upon cavalry;" and the great regret at the accident. To the quest closed eyes, and bleeding breast. Those absence of pickets or advance force of any kind on the Confederate side explains the rest. The enemy were almost in contact with them; the Federal artiflery, fully commanding the position of the troops, was expected to open every moment; and the mon were just in that excited condition which monthful of whiskey, which was held to his in the possess came the melancholy notes of the contact with them are most first a second condition which is safe and belt were also removed. He then seemed easier, and baving swallowed a officer "like showers of fulling stars," and in the pouses came the melancholy notes of the monthful of whiskey, which was held to his in the pouses came the melancholy notes of the monthful of the mean of the melancholy notes of the melancholy notes.

cap, and threw him violent y back on his fusely over Captain Leigh's uniform.

Hill's lines were now in motion to meet booking, and prolific In no class than the to unseat him, but it did not do so, and rising the coming attack, and as the men passed of fishers do we see so large tamilles, hand erect again, he caught the bridle with the Jackson, they saw from the number and rank some woman, more robust and active men or greater exemption from common muladres.

> General Lee. We copy the following from the Petersburg Index

We were shown yesterday, a letter from an iomate of General Loca household, describing the domestic, quiet life that the noble old soldier is living in Cumberian !